CONTESTS FOR RED RIBBON WEEK

ALL ENTRIES ARE DUE BY MONDAY, OCT. 26, 2020

FLOWER BULB CONTEST

For any student who brings in flower bulbs, Dr. Stangline will treat the student's class to a "Brain Break Bulb Planting Party" in the Tate Garden during the month of October.

ROCK PAINTING CONTEST

Students are asked to paint a small rock with a message promoting Red Ribbon Week and the dangers of drugs and smoking. All rocks must weigh less than three pounds and have the child's name on the back of the rock. All rocks will be placed in the Tate Garden as a reminder of all the Red Ribbon Week messages.

ESSAY WRITING CONTEST

Students are asked to write an essay about what they want to be when they grow up. They are encouraged to write about their job / career choice and state how being drug free will help them make their job / career dreams come true! Please use regular notebook paper and judges will be looking for neat handwriting and correct spelling and grammar. Typed entries will also be accepted.

POSTER DECORATING CONTEST

Students are asked to create small posters (9 x 12) with drug-free messages and artwork. Upper grade students can create an advertisement or persuasive anti-drug billboard using funny sayings or rhymes.

Any kind of paper may be used but please keep it to the size of 9x12.

--Students may use crayons, markers, paint, glitter, and / or colored pencils.

Please include the student's FULL NAME and homeroom on BACK. Judges will look for a concise message in LARGE letters, LARGE pictures that are colored, and correct grammar.

Winning contestants will receive

$25 Bulldog Bucks & all work will be displayed in the hallways and the Tate Elementary School Garden. All activities are voluntary. Thank you for helping make Red Ribbon Week a huge success at Tate Elementary!
